On 1 April 2026, share purchase agreements relating to shares of ALTEO Plc. were executed. Pursuant to these agreements, following the completion of the transactions, the shares representing the ownership interest of Főnix Private Equity Fund in ALTEO would be acquired by MOL RES Investments Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of MOL Plc., and Riverland Private Equity Fund. As a result, the ownership interest of MOL RES Investments Ltd. in ALTEO would increase to approximately 40%, while the ownership interest of Riverland Private Equity Fund would increase to approximately 34%.

According to MOL's announcement, not all of the required regulatory approvals could be obtained by the deadline specified in the share purchase agreements. Consequently, MOL exercised its termination right under the share purchase agreements and notified the contracting parties accordingly.

Budapest, October 1, 2026
